

Deadline Approaching for Illinois Veterans to Register for Free Dental Care on Nov. 10 and 11

Illinois Dentists Salute Veterans initiative offers no-cost services for Veterans registered by Nov. 1

WHO: Chicago Dental Society (CDS) dentists are available to talk about the Illinois Dentists Salute Veterans initiative -- offering free dental care for Illinois Veterans.

WHAT: Veterans must register by Wednesday, Nov. 1 for free dental care available across the state of Illinois through Illinois Dentists Salute, organized by the Illinois State Dental Society (ISDS), with support from CDS and member dentists across Illinois. Veterans can register at <https://www.illinoisdentistssalute.org/> for free dental services (with valid military I.D.), including cleanings, restorations, extractions, and more. Appointments are available in hundreds of dental offices across the state on Friday, Nov. 10 and Saturday, Nov. 11.

WHERE: Veterans must register at <https://www.illinoisdentistssalute.org/> by 8 p.m. on Nov. 1 to schedule an available appointment near them.

WHEN: Registration by 8 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 1 will result in an appointment on Nov. 10 or Nov. 11 in accordance with the Veteran's schedule.

About the Chicago Dental Society
