Terms of coverage

The stricken member, his/her spouse or his/her legal representative must initiate requests for assistance before coverage will be authorized.

Members will be scheduled at the stricken member's office, on a part-time basis, according to their availability and convenience. In event of disability the following provisions will take effect:

- If a temporary disability, which prevents him/her from performing functions in his/her practice for at least seven calendar days, the stricken member shall receive up to 90 calendar days of assistance. The president acts as the liaison between the stricken member's office personnel/spouse or legal representative and the membership.
- If a temporary disability results in a second disability an additional 30 calendar days of coverage beyond the original 90 calendar days may be requested. All pertinent facts will be presented to the membership and majority rule shall determine whether or not to extend coverage an additional 30 calendar days.

A Long Term Illness/Disability is defined as a disability, which prevents him/her from performing functions in his/her practice for, over 90 calendar days. In the event of a long-term illness/disability, the president will assist the stricken member, spouse or legal representative. The president and the group will assist the stricken member with the sale of the practice and/or the hiring of an associate. The membership could provide coverage for a period up to 90 calendar days, or until the practice is sold, whichever occurs first. The stricken dentist may request an additional 30 calendar days of coverage beyond the original 90 calendar days. All pertinent facts will be presented to the membership and majority rule shall determine whether or not to extend coverage an additional 30 calendar days.

In The Case Of Death, immediate coverage may begin by the membership. In such a situation the membership may act as support for the practice and the family of the deceased member. To protect the family from destruction in value of the practice due to a member's death a team that includes an accountant, attorney, lender, landlord, staff, dental practice broker and family representatives (executor or administrator of a dentist's estate) should be formed. The membership could provide coverage for a period up to 90 calendar days, or until the practice is sold, whichever occurs first.

Pregnancy and childbirth is not considered a disability and is not considered as part of this agreement.

Diagnosed drug abuse by a member shall not be considered a disability.

Services

All dental services will be performed in the stricken doctor's office. The disabled dentist will be responsible for providing all reasonable materials and office maintenance. If so desired, members may bring any supplies, instruments and/or staff at their own expense when providing assistance at a stricken member's office.

Appropriate measures (professional judgment and expertise) should be taken by the visiting dentist and conferring with the practice liaison regarding specialty referral.

Specialty care (e.g. orthodontics, oral surgery, endodontics, surgical placement of implants, etc) that may be provided by the stricken dentist will not be covered; the covering member dentist will only provide what is considered "general dentistry."

The stricken member will be responsible for any and all office expenses incurred during the period of assistance. All income generated will be assigned to the stricken doctor's practice. The stricken member's office staff will be responsible for all billing, collections and other office functions that would normally be performed in the presence of the stricken doctor. The office staff is expected to be as cooperative as possible with the substitute doctor.

Office staff will notify each patient, preferably in advance, of the general circumstance surrounding the absence of the member-doctor and give the identity of the substitute dentist, as per the schedule provided by the president.

Any services of a specialty nature that cannot be deferred until the return of the stricken member may be referred to the appropriate specialist of the stricken member's choice.

All emergencies will be treated or referred to the appropriate specialist office at the discretion of the substitute doctor or the preference of the patient. In the event of an "after hours" emergency situation the nearest member's office may be contacted for assistance. Professional discretion will be used in regard to fees.

Recall patients will be treated according to the policy of the stricken doctor's office. The office staff will assist in the assessment. The stricken member should have a liaison that will provide the visiting dentist(s) standard operating procedures pertinent to the stricken member's office. This includes lab usage, specialty offices, emergency care and etc.

Continuity of everyday office procedures will be under the management of the liaison and/or the staff of the stricken member's practice.

General considerations

Each member will attempt to render the best possible service in the unfamiliar conditions and at some inconvenience to him/herself for the benefit of a stricken member, his/her family and patients.

The value of assistance is directly proportional to the efforts of the stricken doctor's staff. Ineffective communication will frustrate the substitute doctor and staff. An early morning meeting with the stricken member's staff should be encouraged to discuss the day's procedures and future substitute doctor's scheduling.

It is expected that the visiting doctor's professional liability insurance is in effect and is applied to the location of the stricken doctor's practice. A copy of the Practice Location Change Form (Malpractice Insurance) should be completed and on file with the president or vice president.

This agreement attempts to explain the issues associated with each situation below:

- 1. Temporary disability of a member
- 2. Long term illness/disability of a member
- 3. Death of a member

Some terms of coverage concepts overlap the members' participation in this program/agreement. It is the intention of the Doctors Disability Club to service the disabled member's practice or deceased member's practice in order to protect the value of his/her practice.

Professional and wholehearted cooperation of every licensed dentist along with the disabled member's family, office liaison and staff, and/or other pertinent professionals is the essential key to a successful program.

The signatories below and remains in effect until August 31,, enter into this agreement.
