January 8, 2018

With nearly 25 years of experience as a general dentist in Chicago, Dr. Brian Caraba was elected to the Chicago Dental Society (CDS) Board, and was sworn in as a board member and director of the West Side branch, at a ceremony held on Sunday, November 12, at the Palmer House Hotel.

To kick off his three-year term as branch director, Dr. Caraba will focus CDS's efforts on membership and attendance at the 153rd Midwinter Meeting, February 22-24, 2018, at the McCormick Place West. The Midwinter Meeting is one of the largest exhibits of dental products and professional dentistry in North America - ranking among Chicago's top 20 conventions, and typically generating more than $29 million for the local economy (according to Choose Chicago).

CDS was established in 1864, and with more than 4,400 members in Cook, Lake and DuPage counties, is the largest local society of the American Dental Association.

Dr. Caraba earned his dental degree at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Dentistry. He is also a member of the American Dental Association and Illinois State Dental Society. Dr. Caraba resides in Glenview with his partner Lisa, and enjoys in his free time cooking, gardening, scuba diving, fitness and meditation.
