South Holland orthodontist Dr. Ronald Waryjas joins the Chicago Dental Society (CDS) Board, and was sworn in as a board member and director of the South Suburban branch, at a ceremony held on Sunday, November 12, at the Palmer House Hotel.

To kick off his three-year term as branch director, Dr. Waryjas will focus his efforts on the 153rd Midwinter Meeting, February 22-24, 2018, at the McCormick Place West. The Midwinter Meeting is one of the largest exhibits of dental products and professional dentistry in North America - ranking among Chicago's top 20 conventions, and typically generating more than $29 million for the local economy (according to Choose Chicago).

CDS was established in 1864, and with more than 4,400 members in Cook, Lake and DuPage counties, is the largest local society of the American Dental Association.

Dr. Waryjas earned his dental degree and his Master of Science in Orthodontics from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Dentistry. He is also a member of the American Dental Association, Illinois State Dental Society, American Association of Orthodontists, Illinois Society of Orthodontists, The Dental Arts Club of Chicago and the International College of Dentists.
